A Story of Samuel Warren and Matthew Davenport Hill.

Sam Warren, the author of "Ten Thousand a Year," has been the subject of many anecdotes, none of them better than one which I first heard re-lated about him by his friend, Matthew Davenport Hill. Looking in one day at Warren's a little troubled. "It is," said the lawyer-novellst, 'most unfortunate, I ought to have dined tonight with the about to present me with mother office branch. How can I leave her?
